Customer Reviews

"It is just right for a busy pathologist swamped in his or her daily practice with tons of surgical material." —Modern Pathology, review of the first edition "With its striking use of color and its readability, Pathology of the Female Reproductive Tract has created a new niche. It represents a pleasing and relatively detailed exploration of gynecologic pathology with a wealth of information and illustrations for the resident in gynecology or pathology or for the practicing pathologist who would like diagnostic assistance when next confronted with a problematic gynecologic biopsy or resection specimen." NEJM, review of the first edition

Having practiced OB/GYN and GYN Pathology simultaneously in academics and private practice, this text is an extremely informative, well organized easy to understand book that should be on the shelves of all who are involved with Women's Health Care.
