Will Shortz has been crossword editor of The New York Times since 1993. He is also the puzzlemaster on NPR’s Weekend Edition Sunday and the founder and director of the annual American Crossword Puzzle Tournament.

I like this book because all of the puzzles are 'Beware! Very Challenging'. Although no advanced techniques are required for solving, the puzzles will make you think.

This book contains "Beware, Very Challenging" Puzzles only. From the name I thought they would be more difficult.

Not quite as hard as I would have liked. I've only done 15 so far, but only a few were really challenging. Are any of the Will Shortz sudoku books really harder? I wish they were rated. Got the feeling they could have had the same title followed by successive numbers.

challenging puzzles

Very difficult, but challenging.

Will Shortz never disappoints its audience.

Keeping me happily busy and challenged.
