Customer Reviews

Borch, a cartographic publishing company in Germany, makes tough, long-lasting maps with non-toxic, environmentally responsible lamination material.

We used it extensively during our recent trip to St Croix.

This is awesome and can't wait to use it in a couple of weeks for our trip. Has been very helpful in the planning and I love that it is laminated.

Map was excellent! Had lots of great info about mooring and provisions!.

Laminated and good scale for high level planning. I was able to label some additional marks on the chart and use it through out my trip. I used it for sailing.

Very nice map. Laminated so weather not a problem. I will be taking this map on my trip to BVI.

We took this map with us to the Virgin Islands and referred to it often. After our return, we looked up places we had been to be sure we were accurate in writing to friends about the trip. The map is laminated so is waterproof and handy to keep where it might get wet.

Not enough map detail

I purchased this map for a recent one-week stay in St Thomas which included a day trip to St. John. We rented a car for the week. First, the roads on St Thomas are poorly marked and that presents a problem in itself. The roads shown on this map are so small that the map was not useful on day trips around the island. The best thing we found were local tourist maps and some local help. A GPS would have been great because it would have identified the roads as we were driving. I would not buy this map again...
