GRAND CANYON NATIONAL PARK

THE ROADTRIP
GUIDE

AL LODWICK

Synopsis

Nearly 5 million people visit Grand Canyon National Park each year. The crowds can be overwhelming, so planning your trip is essential, especially if you want to stay overnight. Itineraries designed to fit the visitor's allotted time are suggested. Each viewpoint is listed along with a description of the highlights. Every place to eat, shop and sleep in the park, and many outside the park, are detailed. The author has driven to the park more than twenty times. Thus, he is highly qualified to write this book. This is his tenth book about places and things in Arizona.

Customer Reviews

Concise, friendly and highly informative, this little book is a must for first-time visitors. If you have already visited, you will want to return now that you have a guide to the top spots and the shuttle routes. Although I visited the Grand Canyon years ago, this pleasant read has me excited about another trip. This time I may even spot a California Condor.

Very informative book! Great pictures and lots of practical information. My family and I look forward to using it on our Grand Canyon adventure.
