Living In New Zealand - Emigration Guide

Synopsis

A comprehensive, up-to-date guide to living in New Zealand, that provides everything you need to know about moving to and residing Down Under. It includes inside information on the best places to live, getting a job or starting a business, education, health, finances, and retiring there. Written for would-be expats by journalists working for London's Daily Telegraph, it features many case studies of people who have started a new life in New Zealand, and gives an honest account of what relocating and living there is really like.
