Joan Of Arc (Landmark Books)

Synopsis

In the early 15th century, France was in turmoil. The country had been at war for years, and it had no king. Out of the chaos came Joan of Arc. No one knows how Joan, a poor farm girl, was able to command armies and win battles, but she did all that and more. Some called Joan a heroine. Others called her a witch. But with her determination and unwavering faith, she would go down in history as Saint Joan of Arc.

This book was terrible. the only reason I give it one star is because Joan d’Arc’s story is one i like. this author portrays it very drily and i felt like i was reading out of my history book! i think the author could have made the book more interesting with more details and descriptions.

I thought it was a great book. It showed that if you beleive enough in your cause you can do anything.
