Customer Reviews

I thought all along that being charismatic is an innate traits.This book tells me that it can also be self- taught and the tips for mastering your charisma is in this book. This books' explanation really has given me a different view about this sujet, which something positive.Highly recommend this book!

It was an interesting read. This is a great book you have to break down chapter by chapter in order to really benefit from all the information that is given. I had never considered myself a particularly charismatic person but over my many years of working, I routinely wound up in mentoring and leadership roles. This book helped me understand that my personality and my self-confidence probably had a great deal to do with that!

Quick read with a few good takeaways. It is the perfect length if you want to read something longer than an online article but shorter than a full book. You won't find any mind-blowing new ideas that you don't already know, but you will find reminders that will help you commit to working on becoming a more charismatic individual.

Very useful and practical advice and info

This book Charisma really gives you the gold with its very easy to understand tips and information. It really is quite a good roadmap to show you exactly how to increase and improve your Charisma. It had me glued to every page and gave me quite a few 'ahaa' moments. I definitely can feel the difference after internalizing the simple methods contained inside its pages.

Reading this book, I have find out few things that should be avoided in future by me. It was so strange to read that somebody do things as I do, when it should be done in the opposite way. In addition, just after you read this, it became so obvious. Now I really know what to change to be more charismatic. Thanks for the book!

This book is ideal for anyone planning to enter fields of leadership. The book speaks of sincerity and friendship as paths to success in gaining the sought-after trait of "Charisma". Some politicians and leaders practice this very well. Others could benefit from buy this wonderful book. The instructions here clearly come down on the side by being genuine, maintaining eye contact and displaying a real interest in contemporaries. Anyone in sales could profit from this easy read.

I don't like to read books but this book was very helpful and interesting I would diffidently recommend this book to anyone who wants to improve in their live and become a well known person
