Customer Reviews

A really good book about how one man's sacrifice can change the lives of family and community in the blink of an eye.

I grew up in the area, so this was very interesting to read a first hand account.

I bought this book for my Husband. He vividly remembers the events that predicated this book, as he was born & raised in Jackson County. He felt that the book was quite good.

Amazing book! My husband and I both read it in one sitting! We are going to buy a few more copies and give them as gifts! Hoard is a very talented writer!

This is a most touching story. I lived close to the Hoard family when this happened and often wondered about Richard and the other children as they grew up. He has done a masterful job of expressing his emotions and the power of forgiveness. Thank you for such a wonderful book.

Great book. I could not put it down until I finished the book. Well written.

Very well written. I enjoyed reading about the story I have heard bits and pieces of. Thank you for sharing!
