Customer Reviews

“The uniqueness of this commentary series is that it is the first to be devoted primarily to the reception history of the Bible” (p. xii) and it is done in a clearly outlined, user friendly, verse-by-verse commentary format . . . This quick, illuminating display of the genealogy of interpretations is a unique achievement of this commentary useful to any reader interested in biblical interpretation. (Reviews in Religion & Theology, 4 September 2013) “It provides a fascinating journey of discovery and can be read, unlike most other commentaries, from cover to cover.” (Relegere: Studies in Religion and Reception, 1 May 2013)
