Customer Reviews

I really enjoy books with a happy ending and this was fortunately one of them! This author keeps the suspense going in a very interesting way. Definitely one of my favorites in this genre. I am currently half-way through reading Where the Grass is Greener by the same author and so far so good! I can easily recommend both!

What a great book! Each chapter kept drawing me in. Definitely a must read if you want something romantic, sexy and with an interesting storyline. 5 out of 5 stars!

A beautifully written book about love and passion. The opposites attract eventually in this story in a very poetic way. A wonderful read that seems to be based on a true story. I give it 5 out of 5 stars without hesitation.

I didn't like how this flowed. It was an okay read. I enjoyed Tangled with Lust better than this one.

Good read, I would have like to know more about both main characters, story line could have been more developed.

While I thought the short story was very well written grammar wise etc...Melanie was young and moved to California to do an internship for Eva. Eva immediately liked Melanie, took her to dinner and slept with her. Just because people are from the south doesn't mean they have to sound uneducated. I didn't like the characters, and really disliked the storyline. Despite what the other reviewers said, I did not think this book was hot. Usually when the characters aren't developed the sex scenes are at least good. NOT THE CASE HERE. Not a fan.

I was really bored today. I stayed home and I had nothing to do. Thankfully Jennifer Jagger sent me an email earlier today informing me about her new release. I read another Jennifer Jagger's book 2 weeks ago and I really enjoyed it so I bought this one in an instance. Long story short, Where the Grass is Greener made my night! Let me tell you, this story is amazing. I read it in one seat. I felt a strong connection to Melanie (the heroine) since I could relate to a lot of her problems. Extremely hot as well! I have to publicly thank the author for saving my night. :) Don't let this gem go away!

I read this book like a maniac in record time! Melanie leaves her town and goes to a new and strange place with strange people. Her boss (they meet before they know that they will work together) is a sexy dynamic woman. Their connection is instant and the author keeps us worried about what will happen! Of course in every cool story there is a villain. In this case the villain is the ex-girlfriend also a colleague of Melanie who makes her life difficult! But Melanie and Eva have other plans!!
