God's Generals For Kids Volume 4: Maria Woodworth-Etter

Synopsis

This is the fourth volume in God's Generals for Kids. It tells the story of Maria Woodworth Etter. She had a very tough childhood and, as she grew older, life wasn't always easy. It was only when she turned to God that she found a peace that would not go away. As she obeyed God, many people were saved and healed. She also experienced strange trances and heard God speaking to her, but the world could not understand her. Newspapers accused her of making people go crazy, and she was often threatened by hooligans. Through all of this she kept on following God even though she never knew what grew older, life wasn't always easy. It was only through, that God would always be with her. As you read about Maria, you will see how God can use you, too, as you learn to obey Him. If she were here today, she would say to you, "Learn about God and salvation through His Son, Jesus Christ. Pray and ask the Lord to lead your life, and then listen carefully, for you, too, may be called to be a trailblazer for God."

Through their ministry thousands of children have fallen in love with Jesus, and gone on to do incredible things for him. He is the author of several books.

This is another additional to a wonderful series. The writing and flow of the book is perfect for my 8 year old and if you were concerned there may be a bias according to the times and events this book is daring enough to address the questionable without casting doubt on the miraculous. It is a very honest approach to an important spiritual time in our nation and for the Christian faith.

I read this book along with my daughter. We both enjoyed reading it. I finished the book within a day and was ready to begin the next one.

Great book! There is a whole series, buy a bunch and use for stocking stuffers. Lets get the kids to read THESE!!!!!!
