Maria Treben (1907-1991) is known as the pioneer in Austrian naturopathy. As a young girl, her mother introduced her to the world of plants. When she met biologist Richard Willfort, she developed an eye for healing herbs. In 1971 Maria Treben wanted to make her knowledge public. As her group of followers had grown enormously within a very short time, someone came up with the idea that she should gather together her advice and experience in the book "Gesundheit aus der Apotheke Gottes".

Maria Treben is a Master Healer and the proof is in the statements of the hundreds of people in this book. She proves that we can use herbs to cure most things in our bodies if we follow her suggestions. Yes, it takes time and patience, and it's worth every second! It's a great companion book to her extraordinary "Health Through God's Pharmacy" book.

It was good, it is more of a testimonial book. You can't look anything up, I highlighted every thing. There is not much new information in this book from 'Health Through Gods Pharmacy" which is the best book! It does get you excited about herbs!

Very good book, it's a must for everybody. Herbal cures, no side effects, it is working. Big pharma will loose profits if more and more people read books like this. Take your health seriously, simple cures are in sight for everyone, just open the mind, and try ... what can you loose?

Good information, but her books have much the same info in all of them, with a bit of a difference in perspective

I love the documentation of what Maria provides for a variety of cures! This book is a must for those who love remedies and cures for diverse ills!

Interesting reading but this was a collection of letters about cures and was not organized into categories which made it difficult to quickly locate issues.

Very pleased with purchase.

Great book right for everyone !!! Good information !!!!!!!
