Customer Reviews

this book is filled with memorable German cookies that can be enjoyed everyday, or during the holidays. These recipes uses a lot cake flour, butter, eggs and sugar. Some of the recipes have amazing stories from patrons who go to the restaurant and remember how their grandmother and mother made them during their childhood. This book is a great find and should be on your kitchen library collection.

Several recipes my German friend was enthusiastic about. Looking forward to trying them out. Just about time to start practicing for Christmas
