Synopsis

Sarah Blough is locked in Tony's basement with no idea of how she will get out of here. No one knows where she is. Anyone connected to him is dead and there's no way that Jacob will figure out where she is. Why was she so determined to do investigate her mother's dead? It was foolish. Jacob Shetler has no intention of letting his beloved disappear without at least trying to find her. To his surprise, his mother knows more than she pretends and when they discover Sarah missing, Mrs. Shetler knows where to go. Even being found, and sharing a kiss with Jacob, Sarah still isn't ready to let her questions go unanswered. She goes through her clues and comes to the conclusion that she is the one who is unlucky and anyone she loves dies! To protect Jacob, she sends him away too. She lost in despair and loneliness. Why is this happening to her? But one night, there's a knocking sound. Is it her imagination, willing things to be different? Will Sarah finally find out the truth of what happened? Will she be able to open her heart to love again?

Customer Reviews

Much better than Book 3 with all of its editing marks. Finally Sarah has her happy ending and a future with her mann

This was another excellent book by Esther Weaver! I enjoyed it very much! Sarah was very determined to get answers as to her mother's death. I admire her strong personality!
