Kevin Allen is the president of the Professional Hockey Writers Association and a reporter on the NHL who has written about 24 Stanley Cup Finals and has covered more than 550 NHL playoff games. He is the author of several other hockey books, including USA Hockey, and he is a coauthor of What It Means to Be a Red Wing. He lives in Ypsilanti, Michigan.

Historical look back on the cup and the traditions that surround it.

As an avid hockey fan, I thought this would be at least somewhat amusing. More stories about where the Cup has been - big deal. I might as well be reading a book about the whereabouts of the Travelocity gnome.
