Tofino Guide

Synopsis

The inclusive, extensive guide to Tofino and Pacific Rim National Park Reserve. Welcome to Vancouver Island's West Coast -- a fabled, breathtaking location, with ancient rainforest, vast stretches of white sand and massive waves pounding in from the Pacific Ocean. Watch whales spouting, bears wandering the shorelines, eagles soaring overhead. Don't forget the world class surfing, the extraordinary hiking trails, and of course the attractive village of Tofino, the heart of the Clayoquot Sound UNESCO Biosphere Reserve. Let Tofino Guide show you magnificent locations for hikes, picnics and beachcombing. Walk a natural log bridge spanning a steep ravine and learn about the marvels of nature all around you. Discover the world-famous Long Beach, then kick back with a hot chocolate in a beachside caf  . Witness the raw power of gale force winds in a winter storm. Rent a wetsuit and a surfboard to ride the cold Canadian waves. Experience the magic of the West Coast -- Tofino Guide will show you how:

At last I've found a guidebook to Tofino! Yay! Why has no one written one before? -- after all, this is probably one of the best known places in Canada with nearly a million of visitors every year --- and no guidebook!? I mean I know the place is laid back -- but geesh! I've only been there once and have been searching for more information for this summer's visit --not easy to find in Regina, believe me. Tofino Guide is great. It's so helpful and detailed, written by a local guy with a sense of humour. I love the recommended "Top Ten" lists (even Top Ten Trees to see!) and the funky sidebars with stuff about local wildlife -- I expected bears, but he even includes banana slugs and the sex life of crabs! And does anyone out there know what a grey ghost is? Check it out! He even tells us what to do when it rains and all about gumboots. But hey, it had better be sunny this July when I'm there -- I'm going surfing!!!

Definitely was helpful in helping me figure out the lay of the land, and to put together an itinerary

I found "Tofino Guide" interesting and entertaining reading, and a very useful guide to help planning a day of exploring the area. It's explicitly a non-evaluative guide, even though qualitative judgments do occasionally appear. I found the descriptions of hiking trails particularly good, and the maps of the areas quite helpful.
