This is my second book I've gotten in this series. This one looks just as nice as the first one. It's the story of an owl who was afraid of the dark. It was too dark so how could she know God was there. Her friends helped her overcome her fear. There are a few lift the flaps throughout the book as well as at least one envelope to open to read the note. I love the envelope idea, although from experience with the first one, these can be a little challenging to stick back in, especially for little ones. My daughter will be quite pleased with this book, I am sure.

Great quality book, & very well written. My kids, ages 5, 3, & 1 all loved it. My 3 year old daughter is afraid of the dark & this book helped her. Its a great book, I highly recommend it.

A really sweet little book. My oldest daughter gave this as a gift to our two year old and it is one she wants read again and again.
