Cat Clicker Training: How To Clicker Train Cats The Easy Way

Synopsis

Cat Clicker Training - How to Clicker Train Cats The Easy Way

PREVIEW: Clicker training incorporates the use of a clicker as a reward or encouragement when training a cat. Cats are able to relate with the clicker, displaying good actions and behavior. Clicker training is often linked with conventional condition, where cats associate sound with food and operational condition and where cats execute movements for food. A clicker is found to be more effective than verbal command because cats can hear clicker sounds more clearly than a voice, as human voice tones change while the clicker sound is always steady or constant. The click is brief and concise, whereas a voice, phrase or a word, is fairly long in cats' point of standing. To say "good boy" will take time than a click.
